St. Baldrick's Shavees

After exceeding the Faribault Police team goal of $1000, Chief Andy Bohlen, Captain Jason Severson, Detective Matt Kolling, Officers Tony Kuchinka, Chris Tonjum, Adam Marvin, Tony Larson, Allen Anderson, Sean Smallen and CSO Marsden Powell had their heads shaved as part of Tigers Tackling Childhood Cancer, a fundraiser for St. Baldrick's. In honor of Logan Pleschourt, the officers joined dozens of others, including firefighters, teachers, and Minnesota Gopher football players at the Medford School on Thursday for the event. Logan presented a mug featuring K9 Cannon, who was also present to give a demonstration. Logan was presented with one of our challenge coins, and told he represented the four values on the coin - courage, honor, integrity and community.

St. Patty's Safety

Whether indulging on green beer or Irish whiskey, plan ahead for a safe way home. Sheriff O'Dunn, Chief O'Neilson and Chief O'Bohlen remind everyone out celebrating to designate a driver, call a taxi, or utilize Sober Ride, just don't get behind the wheel yourself. Additional officers will be out looking for impaired drivers to keep the streets safe.

“A self-taught man usually has a poor teacher and a worse student.”

K9 Catch

On Tuesday, March 14th, Sergeant Brandon Gliem observed a suspicious vehicle at a local store. In checking the vehicle registration, he learned that the registered owner had a suspended driver's license. He attempted to stop the vehicle, but the vehicle then fled. Officers Karl Willers, Ben Johns, Josh Sjodin, Adam Marvin, RCSO Sergeant Mark Hlady and Deputy Steve Bauer all responded to assist. The vehicle crashed into a snowbank at Wapacuta Park. A female passenger, Jennifer Ohm, 32, was arrested on outstanding warrants. A male passenger was briefly detained and eventually released. K9 Cannon was utilized to track the suspect, and discovered him hiding in a pickup bed several blocks away. The suspect, Montique Bickham, 22, also the subject of arrest warrant, was arrested and jailed. While awaiting his first court appearance, it was determined that the vehicle used was reported stolen from Sleepy Eye. Bickham was charged with Receiving Stolen Property, Fleeing in a Motor Vehicle, Fleeing on Foot, and Reckless Driving. His bail was set at $20,000 with conditions.

Criminal Sexual Conduct Arrest

On Friday, March 9th, Officers Josh Sjodin, Karl Willers and Sergeant Brandon Gliem responded to a local motel. A woman there reported that she had just returned to her room, and found her fiancé in bed with her eight-year-old daughter. Detective Matt Kolling responded to assist with the investigation. The victim reported the suspect had woke her up, removed her underwear and engaged in inappropriate contact with her. The suspect, Keith Falkenstern, 36, was arrested and jailed. The victim and her 10-year-old sister were examined by staff at Midwest Children's Resource Center, and both disclosed the suspect had been molesting them for the past two years, both in Faribault and another state.
