COVID-19 Information

During the COVID-19 pandemic, we are doing our best to continue to serve the community. However, we are also being mindful of CDC recommendations to limit exposure for ourselves and others we come in contact with. Our emergency response will remain the same, but some adjustments will be made for non-emergency situations. Officers may try to resolve the situation by phone, or may keep a distance between themselves and others.

For your part, if you need to speak with an officer, you can always call us at 507-334-4305. This may be a better option versus coming to the police department in person.

Our lobby is only open on a limited basis. If you come here, you're asked to call us at 334-4305 and we'll triage your call. If we can help you through phone/email, we'll do our best.

Requests for reports can be emailed to records@ci.faribault.mn.us.

We have also removed Take It to the Box to reduce potential spread of the virus.

While the events of the past couple of weeks may be upsetting, we ask everyone for a little more patience and a little more calm. We are here to do our part to help everyone get through this.

HRO Arrest

On Friday, March 13th, Officers Dustin Vanderbeek and Sean Smallen responded to a reported Harassment Restraining Order (HRO) violation. The victim reported that she heard someone knock on her residence door. Before she could get to the door, she stated he child had opened the door and her ex-boyfriend was in the house, and she had an HRO against him. She identified him as Matthew Lohrmann, 38, and that he stated he was trying to see his kids, and then left the residence. Officers Ben Borash and Michael Shuda saw Lohrmann’s vehicle a short time later and stopped him. He denied being at the victim’s residence (even though she had taken a photo of him). He was arrested and charged with Violation of an HRO, and his bail was set at $2,000 with conditions.

Assault Arrest

On Tuesday, March 17th, Officers Lance Ulrich, Matt Kolling and Brad Arens responded to a reported disturbance. The officers were told that the suspect, Mohamed Osman, 26, had come to the victim’s apartment and forced his way inside. The victim and a witness reported that Osman was armed with a knife and had threatened to kill the victim. Osman was found in the building and arrested. However, once placed in a squad car he began to bang his head. When the officers worked to restrain him, he kicked at the officers and blocked the squad door open. He was transported to the hospital, checked out, and then taken to jail. He was charged with 2nd degree Assault, Terroristic Threats, 1st degree Burglary, and Obstructing Legal Process.

Virtues Project

As part of our support of the Faribault Virtues Project, we occasionally share some of the virtues. This seems like a good time to share a couple more. Remember, we’re all in this together.

Compassion: understanding and caring when someone is hurt or troubled, even if you don’t know them. It is wanting to help, even if all you can do is listen and say kind words. You forgive mistakes. You are a friend when someone needs a friend.

Consideration: being thoughtful of other people and their feelings. You consider how your actions affect them. You pay careful attention to what others like and don’t like, and do things that give them happiness.
